Under most circumstances, a woman like Rahab would not be considered a good person. She lived a very sinful life, worshipped idols, and even lied about the Israelite spies hiding in her home. How could God care about a person like that? But Rahab did some things that pleased God. She hid the two spies and then helped them escape safely from the city. But is that what really pleased God?

Read Joshua 2:9-11. Why was God pleased with Rahab?

Did you know that Rahab is mentioned twice in the New Testament? Read Hebrews 11:31 and James 2:25. What was it that pleased God?

We all do wrong things! We are all sinners! Thank God that “while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.” Our greatest gift to God is believing Him: believing Jesus died for our sins and believing God can and will take care of us!

John 6:1-14 A Lot with a Little

Today we learned that Jesus and His helpers had crossed a big lake and a lot of people had followed them. The people followed because they had seen all the wonderful things Jesus could do and they wanted to be close to Him. When Jesus looked up He saw many people there. There were more than 5,000 people. Soon it was time to eat and Jesus said to Philip, “Where can we buy bread for these people to eat?” They did not have enough money to buy food for all these people. Andrew, another one of Jesus' helpers said, “Here is a boy with five small loaves of bread and two small fish.” Jesus did a lot with a little. He took the bread and fish and fed all the people and had leftovers.

Mark 4:35-41 Jesus Can Do

Jesus was teaching a crowd of people by the Sea of Galilee. His disciples were also there with Him. When evening came, Jesus stopped teaching and said to His disciples, “Let's go over to the other side of the sea.” On the way to the other side, Jesus was tired from a long day of teaching so He lay down in the boat. Suddenly a storm came and dark clouds filled the sky. Waves crashed over the boat and it was raining. The disciples were afraid. The disciple woke Jesus and said to Him, “Teacher, don't you care if we drown?” Jesus got up and said to the wind “Quiet! Be still!” The wind and rain stopped as soon as Jesus spoke. Jesus is God's son and He can do anything.

Bible Verse: “Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father.” John 14:9
